

Blue Card - EU

Please go through the checklist for yourself and see if you meet all the requirements, could meet them, or identify what you still need. This checklist serves as a self-assessment and as an initial overview.

Educational requirements		The educational requirements mentioned here are fundamental for working in Germany. If these are not met, there is no chance of pursuing a career in Germany. (About the Blue Card EU visa/Alternative visas for professionals)
Equivalency or comparability of the university degree  (Recognition in the Anabin database)	<input type="radio"/>	University Degree (4-year, full-time program, recognized)
Additional requirements		The basic requirement for obtaining the Blue Card EU visa is the employment contract with the salary specified below. (About the Blue Card EU visa/Alternative visas for professionals)
Employer in Germany	<input type="radio"/>  <input type="radio"/>  <input type="radio"/>	Concrete job offer  OR  valid employment contract  ----- minimum gross salary of EUR 58,400 or EUR 45,552 in STEM professions (as of 2023)