

Employment in Germany

Please go through the checklist for yourself and see if you meet all the requirements, could meet them, or identify what you still need. This checklist serves as a self-assessment and as an initial overview.

Educational requirements		The educational requirements mentioned here are fundamental for working in Germany. If these are not met, there is no chance of pursuing a career in Germany. (About the visa for skilled professionals and the Blue Card EU visa)
Equivalency or comparability of the degree or vocational qualification (For university degrees, recognition in the Anabin database) (For vocational training, recognition is granted by the recognition authority in Germany)	<input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/>	University Degree (recognized) OR Vocational training (recognized) *A 3-year degree (B.A) is only conditionally recognized in most cases and requires an individual assessment. *A 2-year degree also requires an individual assessment.
Additional requirements
Employer in Germany	<input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/>	Concrete job offer OR valid employment contract